Dear Parishioners, Friends, Community Members, Brothers & Sisters in Christ,

On Sunday, 7 August 2022, Saint George Church in Uniontown, PA will hold its 26th Annual Lebanese Food Festival. Our festival offers the community an opportunity to experience homemade Middle Eastern cuisine, religious and cultural enrichment, raffles and prizes, children's activities, musical entertainment, and so much more. Our annual festival allows us to share the richness of our unique and ancient religious and cultural traditions with the wider community of Uniontown, Southwest Pennsylvania, and the Laurel Highlands.

We invite you, your families, and friends to join us for another year's festivities. If you, your family, or your business are able to sponsor this year's festival through one of the opportunities listed below, your donation will be a contribution that sustains our parish for years to come.

Our annual festival commemorates the traditions and spirit of St. George Church, uniting our parish community through faith, prayer, family, and fellowship, as we welcome back the many parishioners who travel each year to renew their connection to their spiritual home, and welcome anew the many members of the local and wider community who support and enrich the presence of the Maronite Church in Southwest Pennsylvania.

We hope that you consider a sponsorship and look forward to seeing you at the festival. As always, your donation will be appreciated and recognized as a precious and valuable contribution as you become part of our annual celebration here at St. George's.

Gratefully yours in Christ,

Rev. Father Aaron J Sandbothe
Pastor of St. George Church
