FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

Dear Friends,

In one of the concluding prayers of the Anaphora of St. Mark the Church prays: “Bless and forgive the priests who are the stewards of your people and of your holy Church. Forgive the deacons of your Divine Mysteries and all the faithful who have shared in this sacrifice.” The Church prays that God should not only bless but forgive her priests and deacons. This is not only because these men are weak and sinful just as all humanity is weak and sinful, but also because the ordained clergy of the Church have been entrusted with the stewardship of the Father’s Treasure House of Mysteries. When a priest fails it is not only his own salvation that is risked, but the souls of all those under his stewardship and the sanctity of the sacred things he has been entrusted. Therefore, we not only pray for vocations to the priesthood, but we pray for our bishops, priests, and deacons to be preserved in true faith and holiness all the days of their lives, and we pray for our departed priests who struggled to live up to the dignity to which they had been called. We pray for all the dead, but we pray especially for our priests who have served at our altars.

We pray to God that “priests, who changed bread and wine into Your Flesh and Blood, now hold branches of praise as they meet You.”

Abouna Aaron
