FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

Dear Friends in Christ,

Christ is Risen! Truly He is Risen!

In one of the hymns for the Feast of Easter we sing:

Alleluia!
Christ, the Son of Mary, died; he tasted death on the Cross.
He brought Adam back to life when he went down to the dead.
Seeing him, Death was afraid and lost its crown in the fight.
In glory Christ rose from death, and he lifted us on high.

On this greatest Day of days we celebrate the great victory that Christ has won on our behalf. Through His perfect obedience in tasting death on the Cross, Christ abolished the disobedience of Adam in the Garden. He, Who is Life, killed Death in its own realm that it would no longer have power over us. Arising from that terrible and awesome battle, Christ rose from death to show us that Death has been vanquished, it no longer has a permanent hold on any of us. Just as Christ's descent to Sheol was only temporary, our deaths are only temporary – we now have hope of the Resurrection!

Christ is Risen! Truly He is Risen!
